

American Missionary Association

Congregational Rooms, 4th Avenue and 22d Street
NEW YORK CITY

A. F. BEARD, D.D., Honorary Secretary and Editor

J. W. COOPER, D.D. C. J. RYDER, D.D.
Corresponding Secretaries

H. W. HUBBARD, Treasurer

Eastern District

Office, 615 Congregational House, 14 Beacon Street
Tel. Haymarket 1644

Rev. GEORGE H. GUTTERSON, District Secretary
Mrs. IDA VOSE WOODBURY, Field Representative

Boston, Mass., April 17, 1909.

Mr. G. W. Forbes,
West End Public Library, Boston.

My dear Mr. Forbes:

We learn today from the New York office that there is no such name as Henry Highland Garnet on the list of the teachers, at any time, in Avery Institute, Charleston, S.C. The first Principal of Avery was an educated colored man by the name of Cardozo. Rev. Mr. Garnet, in the early sixties, was for a time pastor of a church in New York city. There is no Avery College in the South that we know of. Mr. Garnet was a member of the Executive Committee, of the A.M. A.

Very truly yours,

Mrs. Annie C. Bridgman, Clerk.